Ian Unger

Ian Unger works tirelessly on behalf of the LGBTQ+ community to help move mainstream culture toward support and acceptance of alternative identities. Ian focuses on helping guide queer youth through the coming-of-age process.

Ian is the Youth Program Coordinator at Affirmations LGBTQ+ Community Center, in Ferndale; speaks at conventions on various diversity topics; and offers sensitivity trainings to businesses, schools, and other organizations.

As a transgender man, Ian is committed to supporting people of all genders figure out how to live and embody their truth.

PFLAG is the extended family of the LGBTQ community. We're made up of LGBTQ individuals, family members and allies. Because together, we're stronger.

OUR MEETINGS...

As always, we welcome everyone, whether member or non-member and all GLBTQ folks, family and friends.

Our meeting will begin at 2:00 p.m. with Support Groups meeting after the introductions. (Support Groups: New Parents, Parents of Transgender, Transgender, Young Adults 15 to 25 years old and General Support)

Due to the importance of the stories being told by persons in the group discussion, interruptions can be very distracting. We ask that you arrive on time to be able to enter into these groups. Any persons arriving late, after 2:15 p.m., may be asked to form their own group with a PFLAG greeter or Board Member. We appreciate your understanding in this matter.

Social half hour with refreshments will begin at 3:30 p.m.

Our speaker will present at 4:00 p.m. after brief announcements.

Dear PFLAG friends,

We welcome all visitors and their families to our monthly meetings. Please visit our website @ pflagdetroit.org for valuable resources, (PDF) brochures and pamphlets.

You may find in your support groups that there are frequent discussions centered around “religion.” Please understand that this subject, in no way indicates, that PFLAG is a religious organization. It happens that religion has played an important role in many people’s lives and has been the source of some pain in coming to grips with one’s own or one’s child’s sexuality. The subject of religion therefore is one that comes up quite naturally when people are struggling with what their faith says about their sexuality and what they know themselves, through their own experience. PFLAG does not endorse or support any particular religion. We are a secular organization made up of people of many different (and sometimes no) faiths.

Thank you for your continued support.
